16	Defendant.

18	Defendant previously moved to strike plaintiff's expert designations. Although
19	plaintiff's prior disclosures were admittedly late and did not provide all the information
20	required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26, this court, in the exercise of its discretion, denied the motion and
21	gave plaintiff until March 21, 2011 in which to submit expert disclosures that complied with

23	Defendant now moves to strike plaintiff's March 21 expert disclosures because (1) the
24	disclosure served by few on Merch 21 did not contain a written report: (2) defendant received a disclosure served by fax on March 21 did not contain a written report; (2) defendant received a written report (by mail) on March 23; and (3) that written report merely is a verbatim copy of the written report plaintiff served with his prior disclosure of Daniel Fleming—the only difference being that another purported expert, James Flynn, has added his signature to it.

Plaintiff has not filed an opposition to the motion. The matter is deemed suitable for determination without oral argument, and the May 3, 2011 hearing is vacated.	Civ. L.R.	7-1(b)

Upon consideration of the moving papers, this court rules as follows:

Although defendant did not receive the written report until March 23, the court finds that defendant was not seriously prejudiced by the two-day delay. Nevertheless, the court also finds that plaintiff did not comply with Fed. R. Civ. P. 26 by having Flynn simply add his signature to the report prepared by Fleming. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(2)(B). Moreover, at the motion hearing on defendant's prior motion to strike, plaintiff indicated to the court that he intended to proceed only with Fleming. Accordingly, defendant's motion to strike is granted as to Flynn and denied as to Fleming.

Defendant shall have until May 20, 2011 to serve rebuttal expert reports, if any.

The expert discovery cutoff is extended to June 20, 2011.

The last date to hear motions re experts or expert disclosures (including any motions under Daubert v. Merrell Dow Pharmaceuticals, Inc., 509 U.S. 579 (1993)) is re-set for August 9, 2011, 10:00 a.m.

All other deadlines set in the court's March 8, 2011 Order (Docket No. 59) remain unchanged.

SO ORDERED.

Dated: April 28, 2011
